

## Title: 1984

A dystopian story about a totalitarian society controlled by surveillance, propaganda, and thought police. Winston Smith, the protagonist, secretly rebels against the system in search of truth and freedom. Themes: totalitarianism, truth, individuality.

## Title: The Hobbit

Bilbo Baggins, a comfort-loving hobbit, is thrust into an epic quest to reclaim a dwarven treasure guarded by a dragon. Along the way, he faces trolls, goblins, and discovers courage within himself. Themes: adventure, bravery, friendship.

## Title: To Kill a Mockingbird

Scout Finch recalls her childhood in a racially charged Southern town, where her father defends an innocent black man accused of rape. Themes: justice, racism, moral growth.

## Title: Pride and Prejudice

Elizabeth Bennet navigates issues of manners, marriage, and misunderstanding with the proud Mr. Darcy. Their evolving relationship critiques societal norms. Themes: love, social class, reputation.

## Title: Fahrenheit 451

In a future where books are banned and burned, fireman Montag begins to question the oppressive system he upholds. Themes: censorship, knowledge vs. ignorance, rebellion.

## Title: The Great Gatsby

Nick Carraway observes the tragic pursuit of the American Dream through the mysterious and wealthy Jay Gatsby. Themes: illusion, wealth, love, disillusionment.

## Title: The Catcher in the Rye

Holden Caulfield recounts his escape from prep school into the adult world, criticizing its phoniness and searching for authenticity. Themes: identity, adolescence, alienation.

## Title: Brave New World

In a technologically advanced future, humans are engineered and conditioned for societal roles. Bernard Marx questions the cost of this 'perfect' world. Themes: conformity, freedom, technological control.

## Title: Moby Dick

Ishmael joins Captain Ahab's obsessive quest to hunt the white whale, Moby Dick, a symbol of nature's power and mystery. Themes: revenge, fate, nature vs. man.

## Title: Jane Eyre

An orphaned girl overcomes adversity to become a strong, independent woman. Her love for Mr. Rochester is tested by dark secrets. Themes: resilience, love, morality, feminism.